

Volume 76, Issue 1

2020

v • Making Stories for the Moments of Our Time –

Heather Greenhalgh-Spencer

Presidential Address

1 • Teaching Anger: PES 2020 Presidential Address – Cris

Mayo

Response to Presidential Address

20 • Civil Anger as Paying Attention: Response to PES

Presidential Address by Cris Mayo – Michele S. Moses

Response to Presidential Address

28 • A Litany of Queer Anger – Adam J. Greteman

General Session

35 • The W.Va. Teachers' Strike as Counter-Conduct - Sara

Hardman

Response to General Session

50 • Make Hong Kong Great Again – Liz Jackson

56 • Women, Guns, and Guilt: The Bridge Between Pragmatism and New Materialism Depends on Our Response-ability to Think - Samantha Deane

Response to Deane

70 • “Attend to the Oats”: Guns, Mansions, Man Cards,
Money, and the Vitality of Things - Barbara S. Stengel

76 • (Don’t) Just be Nice: Broadening the Moral Vocabulary of Students - Kirsten Welch

Response to Welch

90 • Niceness Is Not Enough: A Response to Kirsten
Welch’s “(Don’t) Just Be Nice” - Derek Gottlieb

96 • Revitalization as Ritual: Sacrifice, Cities, and Schooling - Nicholas Eastman

Response to Eastman

110 • Be Global, Think and Act Local: A

Response to Eastman - Lynda Stone

115 • Education qua Ecognosis:

Reading Thomas Hardy's Tess of the d'Urbervilles for an Ecological Philosophy of Education

- Annie Schultz & John Mullen

Response to Schultz & Mullen

129 • An Ecofeminist Appeal to "Education qua Ecognosis"

- LeAnn M. Holland

134 • Reclaiming the Feminine Voice in American Transcendentalism: Bridging Divides in Political Education

- Naoko Saito

Response to Saito

150 • Bridging Divides: Invoking a Deeper Understanding of "Spiritual Vacancy" and the Teacher's Role in Naoko Saito's Political Education

- Shannon Robinson

155 • Reckoning with Our Ghosts: A Reconsidering of Early White Female Theorists in Contemporary Philosophy of Education - J. R. Allison

Response to Allison

169 • Looking Back While Looking Forward: History, Complexity, and Education
– B. B. North

175 • Building Bridges with Bullshit:
Authenticity and Performativity in Assessment - Matthew Thomas-Reid

Response to Thomas-Reid

191 • Authentic Assessment and Artistic Expression:
A Brief Exploration - Seamus Mulryan